Perimeter Security Industries welcomes two new executives

21 May 2012

A $250,000 grant recently awarded by Commercialisation Australia to Perimeter Security Industries in recognition of its highly innovative SecureMat system will enable the appointment of two new executives. PSI is pleased to welcome David Medhurst and David Bowman to the team.

David Medhurst joins us as our Marketing and Business Development Manager. David has many years of experience in business relationship management in the electronic security monitoring and national guarding and patrols marketplace. He is highly respected in the sector for his expertise in business-to-business sales relationships, and has worked for companies including Brambles Security, Signature Security, Armaguard and Southern Cross Protection.

David Bowman has been appointed as Manufacturing Manager, with the specific aim of scaling up manufacturing procedures and implementing a Quality Assurance plan. David has degrees in both science and engineering, and experience in establishing supply chains for newly developed products and commercialising electronic equipment, including firmware and hardware.
